PROBATION

You are hereby sentenced to probation for a term of: sixty (60) months.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
7. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (check if applicable)
8. You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.
9. If this judgment imposes a fine, you must pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.
10. You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution,

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: TAMMY LAVERN CARTE
CASE NUMBER: 5:19CR50095-002

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Defendant shall spend the first twelve (12) months of probation under the terms and conditions of home confinement; however, electronic monitoring will not be required. During home confinement, the defendant shall not leave her residence for any reason without authorization from the U.S. Probation Officer; but such authorization should not be unreasonably withheld. When authorized, the defendant may leave her residence for employment, assisting in the transportation of her grandchildren to and from school, her own medical care, religious purposes, or such other times as may be specifically authorized.
2. During the last forty-eight (48) months of probation, the defendant shall complete fifteen (15) hours of community service per year, or sixty (60) hours of community service total. The defendant shall submit a community service log to the U.S. Probation Office for approval.
3. The defendant shall complete a cognitive behavioral therapy program, such as Moral Reconnection Therapy, Courage to Change, Criminogenic Needs and Violence Curriculum, or a similar program, as determined and directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall submit to inpatient or outpatient mental health evaluation, counseling, testing and/or treatment, as deemed necessary and directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.
5. Until the financial penalties are paid in full, the defendant shall not incur any new debt nor establish any bank or credit accounts unless receiving prior approval from the probation officer and will make any information concerning his financial status available to the probation officer upon request.
6. The defendant shall allow and give consent to the probation officer to make contact with any of the defendant's financial institutions to confirm that the defendant is complying with the previously ordered special condition.
7. The defendant shall submit her person, residence, place of employment, and vehicle to a search to be conducted by the U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based on a reasonable suspicion that evidence of any violation of conditions of supervision might be thereby disclosed.
8. The defendant shall assist her codefendant, James Michael Carte, to make immediate inquiry of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arkansas (BCBS) regarding a refund of premiums paid to BCBS after the death of James Glen Carte and the requirements necessary to request a refund. She shall assist him in fulfilling all requirements laid out by BCBS to procure a refund, and any refund received shall be remitted to the Court to be applied to the restitution balance owed by the defendant.
